

Topic: MGA Driver Update 82.60
Component(s) Affected: MVX, MGA6 Video Card
Date: October 19, 2006

OVERVIEW / ENVIRONMENT

ClearCube Technology has developed new video drivers for R Series blades that use the MGA video card with the Multi-Video Expander (MVX).

DETAILED DESCRIPTION

ClearCube Technology has developed new video drivers for R Series blades that use the MGA video card with the Multi-Video Expander (MVX). This package applies to the R1150, R1200, R1300, R2100, and R2200 blades.

These drivers are also contained in the Unified Driver Bundle. See Technical Bulletin TB0205JS, Unified Driver Update Bundle for R1150 – R2200, for more information.

RESOLUTION

To use these drivers, download the `Quad8260.zip` package from the ClearCube Support website.

Note: This zipped file is approximately 17 MB in size.

Unzip the file, and run the `setup.exe` file to install the drivers as desired on your systems. Administrator access is required.
